

Home to our History

Open year round, the Oshawa Museum tells the story of Oshawa from First Nations inhabitants to present times. Offering events and programs that engage, educate, and entertain visitors of all ages, we invite you to the home of Oshawa's history!

Henry House

C. 1840

Our Victorian home, depicting the lives of an affluent, early Oshawa family.

Robinson House

C. 1856

Home to special exhibits, including Celebrating 60: Sixty Years of Collecting

Guy House

C. 1848

Administrative centre, featuring the archives, the Verna Conant Gallery, and the Oshawa Museum Shop.
